

JMTV Basic Instructions

Submitting Videos For Review and Your Critique

Upload your video directly to YouTube, then email the URL to JMTV@JohnMaxwellTeam.com. If you are NOT familiar on how to upload a video to YouTube, please visit the full instructions online at <https://support.google.com/youtube/answer/57407?hl=en-GB>. Be sure to set the privacy settings to 'Unlisted' (only someone with the URL can view it... 'Private' means no one can view it except you!)

You should expect a review by Roddy on the next available Mentorship call (the main call, not the Q&A).

At the moment, the Speaker Training main Mentorship call is held on Thursdays, so usually a list of all the videos will be posted by JMTV admin on to the dedicated JMT Mentorship Facebook group on Wednesday.

You will be tagged in the post so that you are notified via Facebook* when your video is scheduled for review.

On the day of the call, a few hours before the live call, Roddy will post a short audio review for you to listen to ahead of the call. This is to better serve those that cannot make the live calls, and even if you can join the call – it makes the review much more efficient and meaningful. Please do still listen to the audio review even if you plan to join the call live.

We look forward to working with you as you develop and hone your communication skills.

**If you do not have a Facebook profile, we strongly recommend that you create a profile and begin using this online community. Your submitted videos provide a practical learning tool that the whole team benefits from. However, if you cannot join Facebook for any reason - please email your videos URL to JMTV@JohnMaxwellTeam.com, advise them you are not on Facebook and they will email you the date of Roddy's call when your video is scheduled to be reviewed.*
